The Daylight Store

SOMETIMES IT IS WELL NOT TO KNOW WHEN ONE HAS ENOUGH.

This time it is for the benefit of our customers, perhaps not for us, that we have been in Boston this week looking for lower prices on Wash Goods, and we found it on goods as follows:

PRICE DIFFERENCE	PRICE DIFFERENCE	PRICE DIFFERENCE
The following goods are those bought Wednesday in Boston, now priced at a big saving from former prices. Berkeley Cambric, yard-wide, that we were selling at 16c, now at but 12½c. Bleached Cottons that are sold only for cheap linings that were 8c now at but 6c. Best Bleached Cottons, yard-wide, the ones that sold for 14c, now at but 10c. Cotton Blankets that were 75c now at 59c in grey or white. (A smaller Blanket at 49c.)	42-inch Bleached Cotton that has been 16c, now at but 12½c per yard. (A very low price.) A good White Domet Outing, now at but 5c per yard. A good Bleached Outing that has been selling at 10c, now at but 8c per yard. 40-inch Unbleached Cotton that has been 10c, now at but 7½c by the short web of from 15 to 20 yards. Cotton Diapers at from 15c to 25c per piece less than old prices. This brings them down again to where they ought to be.	One bundle of White Dimities in short lengths for babies dresses and aprons that are 12½c, 15c, and 18c goods. Very fine and pretty, now by the length at but 9c per yard. Yard-wide Percalines in new patterns, not the best, but the next grade to them. The 12½c kind now at 10c per yard. Special price by the piece. Very wide Renfrew Gingham, the kind that we sold you last season at 18c and were cheap at that. Bought now to sell in this sale at 12½c. Will make regular goods look dear.

We haven't spoken of one-half the things that we bought Wednesday for this sale. One thing is a good Apron Gingham to sell at but 5c per yard.

Daniel Roach, who played the part of "Slim," the cowboy who was shy of women, in "An Old Sweetheart of Mine," at the opera house last night, is half owner of the Theatre in this city, being in business with his brother. Dan is mixed up in 33 similar ventures in various parts of the East. He took a casual look at the Theatre business and went away satisfied. His home is in Fulton, N. Y.

One result of the granite strike is the greatly reduced demand for electric power. When all the granite quarries and stone sheds in Barre and Montpelier are running the Consolidated Lighting company is called upon to furnish about 1,500 horse-power daily. Since the shut-down the demand from this quarter has not exceeded 50 horse-power daily, and some days not the half of that. The minimum basis for the motors is one dollar per horse power per month.

The clerical endorsements of "The Holy City," the Biblical drama by Clarence Bennett which is to be the offering at the opera house next Tuesday evening run into the thousands. It has been the custom of the management for several years to invite the presence of a performance of the play and not one single unfavorable word of comment has yet been heard from them. They have invariably found it impressive and reverential in its treatment of a sacred theme and they have frequently advised others to attend and have encouraged the presentation of the play in many ways.

RECENT DEATHS OF VERMONT.

Col. George W. Hinds, for many years a resident of Burlington, died at his home in San Francisco, Cal., on March 12 in his 79th year. Colonel Hinds had a long and honorable career in the Civil War. He went out in 1861 as captain in the 96th N. Y., volunteers served in the battle of Fair Oaks, but was later exchanged and afterwards led his regiment into Richmond. He was a brave and able soldier and officer. Shortly after the war he came to Burlington and engaged in the fire insurance business. He sang in the Unitarian choir for many years. About 1888 Colonel and Mrs. Hinds removed to San Francisco. He is survived by his wife, one daughter, Mrs. Frederick Turner, and by two sons, Edward H. and Stetson G. Hinds, all of whom live in California.

RAINCOATS

If you want just one Overcoat, let it be a Raincoat—long enough to cover your legs, to keep them dry in the rain and warm in the cold. If you have several Overcoats, one should be a Raincoat, without fail—and there will be many dry days when you'll turn to it, because it is so easy and comfortable. Light in weight and dark in color—made of fabrics that won't shrink and cockle up the first time they get soaked. $10.00, 12.00, 15.00 up to 22.50. Remember, please, that your Raincoat is an Overcoat but your Overcoat is not a Raincoat.

An Interested Husband.

"Does your husband take any interest in your clothes?" asked Mrs. Kimball of her pretty friend, Mrs. Archer. "Of course Mr. Kimball likes to see me well dressed," she added, "but I do wish he'd sometimes say whether he liked a thing or not."

Mrs. Archer smiled as she answered demurely, "Oh, yes, Mr. Archer takes a great interest in what I wear. Only last winter he bought me a hat."

"Bought you a hat himself?" Why, wasn't it sweet of him?" exclaimed her friend.

"Yes, it was," admitted Mrs. Archer, and again she smiled.

"I was trying to be economical and wear my last year's last, which never had been a success, but that poor boy couldn't endure it." That "poor boy" was a powerful man, measuring 6 feet 2.

"Well, it got to be about the middle of December, and one night he came home bringing in his own hands a band-box. I never shall forget his look of triumph and pleasure as he opened it and said, 'There, Louise! That's the kind of a hat I like to see you wear!'"

It was lovely, too, all trimmed with pink roses and chiffon; but, oh, do you know, the poor dear never noticed that it was straw!"—Youth's Companion.
